

Global Health Fellows

NORTHERN PACIFIC GLOBAL HEALTH RESEARCH
FELLOWS TRAINING CONSORTIUM

WRITING A K-AWARD APPLICATION

Tips from a Reviewer

WHEN: November 15, 2013 @ 9am
WHERE: 9th & Jefferson Building, Room 1360

Speaker:

Sheila A. Lukehart, PhD

Assistant Dean, School of Medicine

Professor, Allergy and Infectious Dis.

Professor, Global Health

Adjunct Professor, Microbiology

Adjunct Professor, Oral Health Sciences

Dr. Lukehart has chaired K award review committees at NIH for many years. She will review the types of K awards and will provide specific advice on writing the various sections of a successful application.

YOU'LL LEARN...

- How NIH works
- The types of K awards
- How to write your application
- The required components of K applications
- Tips for getting good reviews

Can't make it?

You may also attend via Blackboard at:

<https://sas.illuminate.com/m.jnlp?>

sid=&password=M.D768947233EC93F156A1EC47718D

Questions?

Contact Nicole Hobbs (hobbsn@uw.edu)